

Spring 2013 Vol 2

PO Box 30561 Lincoln NE 68503

Friday March 15, 2013 -TRACY GRAMMER on main stage

Tracy Grammer vaulted into the folk spotlight in the late 1990's soon after meeting and joining forces with singer/songwriter Dave Carter in Portland, Oregon. Since Dave's passing in 2002, Tracy has continued walking a musical path as the primary exponent of the music they made together, as well as recording songs drawn from diverse areas of folk and pop music past and present. 2012 saw the release of Little Blue Egg, a compilation of previously-unreleased Dave and Tracy recordings. Tracy combines her sublime voice with a solid command of violin, guitar and mandolin; her return to the LAFTA main stage promises to be a memorable celebration of "postmodern mythic" American music.

Snow Bound Rain Dogs Rescheduled for LAFTA Mainstage Saturday, May 11

The Rain Dogs are four talented musicians who have come together to share a love of American roots music. Creating a timeless sound all their own, they pay tribute to the old southern string bands and classic blues masters. Playing songs that have weathered the generations, the Rain Dogs perform music ranging in style from old time jug band blues and boogie-woogie up through the driving rhythms of early rock and roll. Working within a frame work of acoustic and resophonic guitars, washboard, bass, mandolin, piano & harmonica, the band covers material from artists such as Bessie Smith, Memphis Minnie, Mississippi Sheiks, Muddy Waters, Bonnie Raitt and Bo Carter, along with originals. Check www.lafta.net for more info.

Friday, April 19, 2013 - MATT and SHANNON HEATON at 7th Street Loft

Guitarist/singer Matt Heaton and Irish flute player/singer Shannon Heaton have been making music together since their first meeting in 1992. Their shows mix traditional Irish tunes and songs with their own compositions that draw from both Irish and American roots. Their playing is masterful and inventive, their arrangements city-smart and spacious. Still, they never forget that Irish music is, at its heart, a neighborly form meant for sharing rather than showing off.

All shows start at 7:30 p.m. at the 7th Street Loft. Regular ticket pricing of $13 for members, $17 for nonmembers, students with ID are $10 and children under 12 for $1 applies with tickets online at www.lafta.net or at the door the evening of the performance. More information is available on the web at www.lafta.net or at 402-580-8656, the LAFTA phone number.

Friday, April 26, 2013, 7:30 PM - ANA EGGE House Concert

Saskatchewan-born, Brooklyn-based folk troubadour Ana Egge isn't your run-of-the-mill alternative-country singer. Using unique production and rock-based chord progressions, Egge has made a name for herself as a Gillian Welch figure with a rocker attitude. Critics describe Ana as pure-voiced, an outstanding guitar player and evocative songwriter. Steve Earle stated, "Ana Egge's songs are low and lonesome, big square-stare noir ballads which she plays on a guitar she built with her own two hands and sings like she's telling us her deepest, darkest secrets."

House Concerts are held at 4615 Sugar Creek Ct, Lincoln NE. Artist donation is $12 with all proceeds going to the artists. Backyard Concert Friday, June 21, 2013, 8:00 PM -RITA HOSKING

This California girl comes by her mountain-music sensibility with true authenticity, with original songs deeply rooted in her family's frontier experience. With an of-the-earth, gnarled voice that ranges from high and sweet to down-home and ferocious, she has a poet's way with words folks actually use, and an instrument that delivers the goods. Hosking has talent to burn.

This show will be an outdoor concert in Wooly's Big Back Yard (6115 Huntington Ave, Lincoln). Artist donation is $10. Parking on street, wonderful big shaded back yard. Seats are provided but limited, so you may want to bring a lawn chair if you have one.
