Andrew McKnight House Concert Saturday April 23

Award-winning folk/Americana artist Andrew McKnight's musical journey has traced nearly a million miles of blue highways, and earned him a wealth of critical acclaim and enthusiastic fans for his captivating performances and seven recordings. Andrew's powerful and entertaining show is like one man theatre, delivered with warmth and down-home comfort. His finely crafted songs are woven together with humorous stories and poetic drama, while the musical soundscape traverses influences from Appalachia, tasteful slide and jazzy blues, feisty anthems, rustic folk, and even a little fancy flatpicking on a Carter Family tune. While his skillful guitar work provides a tasteful foundation, the touches of native American cedar flute, resonator guitar, djembe (African hand drum) and even mandolin add delightful and mesmerizing embellishments to the show.

McKnight will be performing for a LAFTA house concert to be held Saturday April 23 at 7:30 pm at 5109 Foxglove Circle in Lincoln NE. Seating is limited, so best to reserve seats by calling 515-614-7459 or via email to dorothyeramsey@gmail.com.

Suggested artist donation is $15.

Michael Renow Harrell Backyard Concert Saturday June 18

Michael Reno Harrell is an award winning songwriter as well as a veteran storyteller and entertainer, and he's from the Southern Appalachian Mountains to hone it a bit finer. His original songs and stories have been described as "Appalachian grit and wit" but, as his writing shows, Michael's awareness is much broader than the bounds of his boyhood home or even the Southern Experience. Having toured throughout the British Isles and much of Europe, as well as most of the US, the songs he writes and the stories he creates reflect an insight into people's experiences that catch the ear like an old friend's voice. Whether the story is in song or narrative, Michael will draw you in and entertain you, all the while making you feel right at home.

Backyard Concerts are held at 6115 Huntington Ave, Lincoln NE. The event will start with a pot luck dinner at 6 pm, LAFTA annual member meeting at 7 pm, followed by the music at 7:30 pm. This is an alcohol/drug-free event. Soft drinks will be offered at no charge. Bring your favorite lawn chair (some chairs are provided). Suggested artist donation $10, $5 for students and children under 12 free.
